Watkins Sets General Casting Call on September 21 for Film School Projects

Nashville, TN (September 6, 2013) – Watkins College of Art, Design & Film will hold a general casting call for Fall 2013 student film projects on Saturday, September 21, at the Watkins campus in Metro Center.

Directors of more than 30 Film School productions will be looking for actors of all ages. Student films are being made under the SAG/AFTRA student film agreement and therefore all current union members are allowed to participate. Actors are asked to bring a headshot and résumé.

Auditions will consist of cold readings from the script (with on-camera readings at the discretion of each director). Casting breakdowns and proposed shoot dates (usually over a 3-day/Friday – Sunday period) will be posted to Watkins.edu/news/auditions as available and distributed on site.

Audition slots will be divided according to gender and age throughout the day (10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.); individual appointments are not available.

- 10 to 11 a.m. – Leading men, age range 19-40
- 11 a.m. to noon – Leading and character men, age range 40 and up
- Noon to 1 p.m. – Leading women, age range 19-40
- 1 to 2 p.m. – Leading and character women, age range 40 and up
- 3 to 4:30 p.m. – Children and youth, age range 8-18

Visit Watkins.edu/news/auditions for more information or email auditions@watkins.edu.

Watkins is located at 2298 Rosa L. Parks Boulevard in Metro Center (across from the Looby). Free parking is available in the campus lot.

Watkins College of Art, Design & Film is a four-year baccalaureate college offering a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Film, Fine Art, Graphic Design, Interior Design and Photography, a Bachelor of Arts in Art, and a Professional Certificate in Film. The faculty and staff are committed to a learning-centered environment that challenges students to engage the mind, train the eye and cultivate talent and skill into an active realization of creative potential. Established in 1885 as a community-based learning institution, Watkins became a baccalaureate college in 1997. It continues to shape and positively influence the cultural horizon and economy of our community through art, design and film instruction in an academic setting, as well as through the Community Education program for youth, teens and adults. Watkins is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), the National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD), and the Council for Interior Design Accreditation (CIDA).
